Documenting Your Memorable Events
With the Simplicity of Technology

Bonnie Papenfuss

Have you taken an amazing trip or attended a special celebration but your only record of it is a few scrawled notes? Do all your beautiful photos remain captive on your phone or computer? If so, come to this innovative seminar where writer, traveler and fellow procrastinator Bonnie Papenfuss will show you how to turn those minimal notes (or none at all) and an abundance of pictures into a keepsake book you will cherish and show off to your friends. Using a popular web site, Bonnie will demonstrate how easy and fun—seriously—it is to build a beautiful, lightweight, easy-to-store memory book in a fraction of the time and monetary investment of true scrapbooking. It might even be something your children will keep and hold dear when you're no longer around. You think? Well, anything's possible!
